A. POSITION SUMMARY

Briefly describe the role of the position within the department and college.

The counselor provides personal, academic, career and crisis counseling to students, primarily within a one-to-one setting. The counselor provides consultation and outreach programming to students, faculty and staff. The counselor advocates for student needs when appropriate. The counselor provides student education and programming on mental health and career topics when appropriate. The counselor assigns DSM diagnoses when appropriate, and refers for medication or medical care when necessary.

B. REQUIRED DEGREES, LICENSES, CERTIFICATES, CREDENTIALS

1. Minimum education level required and the number of years of relevant experience required for the duties of this position.

Master's degree in counseling, psychology, marriage and family therapy, social work, or closely related mental health field required.

Minimum of three years experience in counseling or mental health setting required. Experience facilitating individual counseling with clients is required.

2. List any licenses, certificates, degrees or credentials required by Federal or State Law or college requirements to perform the duties assigned to this position.

Licensed or license-eligible as professional counselor, social worker, or marriage and family therapist required. Candidates needing post degree supervision for licensure may obtain this supervision during the course of their employment.

Coordinating Responsibility

D. ORGANIZATIONAL RELATIONSHIPS

1. Degree of Direction Received: (e.g., close supervision, moderately high level of supervision, moderate supervision, minimal supervision)

The counselor functions with great autonomy in providing counseling, consultation and outreach services to students. The Counselor will receive regular, as indicated, clinical supervision/consultant from the consulting psychiatrist and administrative supervision from the Director of the Integrated Student Health Center(ISHC).

2. Decision-making Authority: Extent of authority for making decisions, recommendations, and commitments that would obligate

a)own time and resources

The counselor is responsible for allocating his/her own time and resources to a caseload of student clients and to other projects, in accordance with the time contract established each term with the Director of ISHC.

b)departmental resources

The counselor is not responsible for making decisions that would allocate departmental resources.

c)institutional resources

The counselor is not responsible for making decisions that would allocate insitutional resources.

What kinds of decisions will the incumbent be expected to make?

The counselor is expected to make clinical assessment, treatment, and referral decisions independently regarding his/her caseload of student clients. Clinical consultation is available to the counselor in making these decisions, but not all decisions are reviewed. Therefore, the counselor is expected to decide when consultation, education and/or supervision are necessary. Because the decisions of the counselor may involve suicidal students (and occasionally students with homicidal thinking), the counselor regularly makes decisions which have the potential to save a human life (or cost a life, putting the college at significant legal risk). The counselor will need to be able to make DSM diagnoses and understand the basics of psychopharmacology and when to refer for medication evaluation. The counselor will need to be clear about his/her boundaries with clients and for keeping confidentiality; and also will need to know what duties they cannot perform.

3. Budget Authority: Indicate the level of responsibility of the incumbent for development, direction and control of budget. Indicate size of budget.

	Delegated authority to develop and monitor*	$
	Develops, monitors* and controls*	$
	Limited approval authority for purchase	$
	Purchase only with higher level OK	$

*To monitor means to review and approve expenses. Control means to authorize budget transfers at department level.
